CANADIAN FILM INSTITUTE

BULLETIN

142 SPARKS STREET, OTTAWA

VOL. 4 NO. 5 MAY, 1958

FILMS OF THE CENTER FOR MASS COMMUNICATION

Of Columbia University Press

Canadian Film Institute has just concluded arrangements with the Center for Mass Communication of Columbia University Press to distribute their films in Canada. The following films may now be borrowed for rental or for preview with a view to purchase.

ACTIVITY GROUP THERAPY 50 min. sd. b&w 1950
Rental $10 per day Sale $150

For two years hidden cameras and microphones recorded the development in activity group therapy of a group of emotionally disturbed boys. (Restricted to audiences in the fields of medicine, psychiatry, social work and guidance.)

ALL MY BABIES 55 min. sd. b&w 1953
Rental $10 per day Sale $150
Midwife training film, follows a midwife in her work with various cases under both favourable and unfavourable circumstances. (Restricted to professional audiences.)

ANOMALIES OF THE GASTRO-INTESTINAL TRACT
20 min. col. sil.
Rental $10 per day Sale $150
Pre-operative and operative findings have been photographed and are explained by means of animated diagrams as well as autopsy findings in some cases. Restricted (see also DEVELOPMENT OF THE GASTRO-INTESTINAL TRACT)

BEYOND THE SCHOOLROOM 25 min. sd. b&w 1955
Rental $3.00 per day Sale $100
Describes the plan for shared responsibility of high school students at Millbrook School. Shows how every student contributes to the effective functioning of the school.

CAN WE IMMUNIZE AGAINST PREJUDICE?
7 min. sd. b&w 1954
Rental $3.00 per day Sale $50
Designed as a discussion springboard --
Cartoons illustrate how three sets of parents try to "immunize" their children against prejudice, by three different methods. (Challenge Film Series)

DEVELOPMENT OF THE GASTRO-INTESTINAL TRACT
35 min. sd. col.
Rental $15 per day Sale $300
Newly revised sound version tracing the development of the intestinal tract by means of animation and of dissections of embryos photographed under magnification. Restricted. (see also ANOMALIES OF THE GASTRO-INTESTINAL TRACT)

FRED SMITH, MAN OF CONFUSION
7 min. sd. col. 1955
Rental $5.00 per day Sale $100
Designed as a discussion springboard --
raises the questions: "Does personal confusion lead to world confusion?" "Do personal tensions contribute to world tensions?" (Challenge Film Series)

FREEDOM TO READ 14 min. sd. b&w 1954
Rental $3.00 per day Sale $50
Designed as a discussion springboard on the issue: How can our libraries best serve our freedom? (Challenge Film Series)

HOME HOMICIDE 8 min. sd. b&w 1954
Rental $3.00 per day Sale $50
Designed as a discussion springboard - - poses the question "How can the mounting home accident toll be stopped?" (Challenge Film Series)

INVADER, The 37 min. sd. b&w 1955
Rental $7.00 per day Sale $125
History from the 15th century to the present day of the fight against one of man's most baffling health problems, syphilis.

MULTIPLE SCREENING 9 min. sd. b&w 1950
Rental $3.00 per day Sale $40
Cartoons, flow-charts and live-action footage show the purpose of multiple screening and its possible uses in combating chronic diseases.

PALMOUR STREET 27 min. sd. b&w 1950
Rental $5.00 per day Sale $100
Events in the life of a Negro family dramatized to show basic ways in which parents influence the mental and emotional development of their children.

PROUD YEARS 28 min. sd. b&w 1956
Rental $7.00 per day Sale $125
Shows how old people can be helped to lead active, useful lives; explores day-to-day problems that accompany old age; and discusses problems that spring from a needlessly helpless, dependent existence.

RUMOUR 7 min. sd. b&w 1954
Rental $3.00 per day Sale $50
Designed as a discussion springboard - traces the development of idle rumour into a city-wide riot, and poses the question "What defence against rumours?" (Challenge Film Series)

TO YOUR HEALTH 10 min. sd. col. 1956
Rental $5.00 per day Sale $100
A cartoon film explaining the nature of alcohol and its physical effects on the human body. Gives various reasons why people drink and some historical background on the use of alcohol through the centuries. Closes by asking whether alcohol will control us, or we will control alcohol.

WHICH WAY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS?
9 min. sd. b&w 1954
Rental $3.00 per day Sale $50
Documentary photographs and animation are used to review the accomplishments of the United Nations in the field of human rights and to show the obstacles to further progress. (Challenge Film Series)

YOUR BODY SPEAKS 12 min. sd. b&w 1952
Rental $3.00 per day Sale $50
The basic factors which make for good and bad posture. Shows how state of mind, personality, general health are indicated by the way you sit and walk.

* * * * * * * *

NEW LISTS & CATALOGUES

SPECIAL SUBJECT LISTS - Fishing & Hunting, Aquatic Sports and Traffic Safety have now been revised. . . . . available from CFI on request.

NATIONAL MEDICAL & BIOLOGICAL FILM LIBRARY
A catalogue of descriptions and appraisals of all films in the National Medical & Biological Film Library. Requests for this catalogue should be sent to the Information & Promotion Division, National Film Board, P. O. Box 6100, Montreal 3.

NEW SPECIAL SUBJECT LIST - 'Human Society' includes films on sociology, anthropology and archaeology. . . available from CFI on request.

CANADIAN FILM AWARDS

Judging of the films entered in the 10th Annual Canadian Film Awards is now completed. The Presentation will take place in Toronto at an informal luncheon held jointly by Canadian Film Awards and the Association of Motion Licture Producers and Laboratories of Canada.

A. Davidson Dunton, Chairman of the CBC Board of Governors, will make the presentations. James A. Cowan, President of Canadian Film Institute and Arthur Chetwynd, President of the Association will be co-chairman. The citations for the Awards will be read by Walter B. Herbert, Director of the Canada Foundation.

Canadian Film Awards is sponsored jointly by The Canadian Association for Adult Education, The Canada Foundation and Canadian Film Institute.

NEW FILMS

JUBILEE JAMBOREE 30 min. sd. col. $4.00
Produced for the Boy Scouts Association 1957
A record of the Jubilee Jamboree-Indaba-Moot held at Sutton Coldfield, England in August, 1957. Gives Boys' views of the event held to mark the 59th anniversary of Scouting and the centenary of the birth of Lord Baden-Powell of Gilwell, Founder of the Boy Scout Movement.

PROFILE OF A PROBLEM DRINKER
30 min. sd. b&w $3.00
Produced by National Film Board 1957
In telling the story of David Spear, this film looks beyond the familiar picture of the alcoholic to the insecurities and inner motivations that cause a man to lean on alcohol. A doctor explains the medical and other resources available to him in his struggle for recovery.

STRATFORD-ON-AVON 15 min. sd. col. $2.30
Produced by Carisbrooke Films, United Kingdom.
The film dwells mainly on the old-world charm of the early half-timbered buildings, such as Shakespeare's birthplace and Anne Hathaway's Cottage, and ends with a visit to the annual Mop Fair.

* * * * * * * * *

NOTE

CITY OF GOLD and THE SCEPTRE AND THE MACE, two National Film Board Productions just released in 16mm, may now be borrowed from CFI.